Kendall Family Ends Hawaiian Tour Without Touching Ground

By EM FRENCH
 FR 5-1390

The Lee Kendall family is home from Hawaii, physically—but it'll be a long time before they touch ground, in spirit. "Fabulous" is the word they used in describing their trip over on the Lurline, their three weeks in Honolulu, and their flight home. Highlights were their side trips to three outer islands, riding the waves in outriggers and on a Catamaran, and Carol especially enjoyed her horseback ride in Waikiki park. Maxine says, "Hawaii is all you've ever heard and more. People who say it's commercial and corny must have really missed the boat."

Eight Hawaiian entertainers arrived at the International Airport on the same plane that brought the Kendalls home. They were enroute to Las Vegas, as were Bess and Bill Petersen. Although the aisles of the plane were a bit too confining for the hula, they put on quite a show all the way to the fun city. Needless to say, everyone arrived in even more of a holiday mood than usual.

Gene and Jean Voorhees were in Oceanside last week trainer vacationing. Well, their headquarters were in Oceanside, but they took a side trip to Mt. Palomar, down to Tijuana, and Alice and Ann Belinda had their first train ride down to San Diego and the zoo.

VISITING LANDMARK . . . Cadets and seniors of the Air Clubs of Brazil, brought to the United States as part of Civil Air Patrol's international cadet exchange, were visiting Disneyland with their CAP hostesses when this photo was made. The group was just crossing Town Square.

Church Plans For Growth of Sunday School

The Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church of Lomita's nominating committee is presenting 100 names to fill jobs as teachers and other workers in the Sunday School. With more than 900 enrolled, and new space to be available by the last Sunday in September, the Sunday School plans for considerable growth during the coming year. The new church year begins on Oct. 1 and continues through Sept. of 1957.

Pastor Robert A. Wells has spoken to two stewardship rallies, one in Bakersfield and the other in Santa Paula. He will speak this Sunday morning at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services in the Lomita at the Parables of Jesus. The subject will be "The Parable of Lost Things."

The church-sponsored promotion banquet for the young people of the church will be Sept. 21. The single young people's department will be host to the intermediates being promoted.

Judy Ives, 5530 Via del Valle, was a surprise guest of honor at a bridal shower given by her neighbor, Jean Levanas, Sept. 1. Judy will become the bride of Edward Polle of LaGrange, Ill., on Sept. 15, at the Wayfarers' Chapel in Portuguese Bend. The Ives have recently moved here from Congress Park, Ill. (a suburb of Chicago and my old home town—I knew Judy when she was a little brown-eyed, curly headed baby) but Judy and Ed will be returning to Chicago as Ed is a senior at the University of Chicago. They have an apartment on the campus awaiting them.

There were three social gatherings during the first week in September to promote friends and funds for the Hollywood Riviera PTA. Mrs. Rod Freeman, fourth vice president, had a dessert at her home, 333 Via Pasqual, on Sept. 4. Her guests were Mrs. William Petersen, Mrs. Mel French, Mrs. H. K. MacLeod, and Mrs. Edward Davis.

Churchmen Join Drive For Voters

Volunteers from the congregation of the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church engaged in a telephone-ringing campaign this week to encourage citizens of the community to register for the November before the deadline today.

Realizing that there are many newcomers to this area and that it is easy to procrastinate in the formality of registering, the Adventist members have reminded telephone subscribers of the deadline and answered question concerning eligibility for registering.

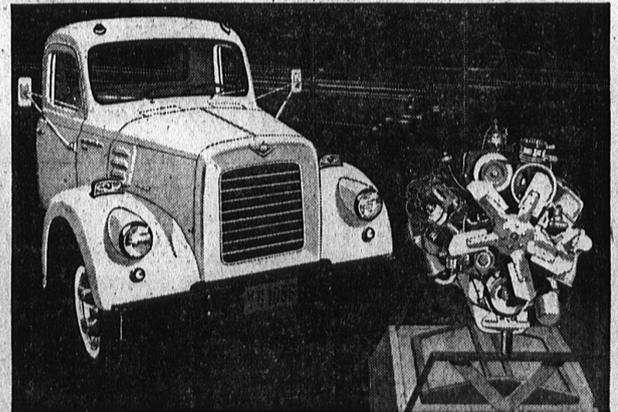

Commenting on this church activity, Pastor Glenn L. Goffar stated, "We a church appreciate the liberties which we enjoy in the United States and feel we should be active citizens to study the issues involved and to vote the way their conscience dictates."

Responsible for organizing the project was Mrs. Harley Campbell.

Judy Reid, 275 Via Linda Vista, has returned to Santa Barbara College as vice president of the sophomore class. Judy, who worked for the Torrance Recreation Department this summer, is living at the Delta Gamma house this year.

Young Brazilian Airmen See Top Area Landmarks

Enjoying the reciprocity of the "Good Neighbor" policy during the recent Civic Air Patrol Cadet Exchange program were female cadets of the local unit, South Bay Squadron 43, who were called off to assist in the entertainment of five male representatives of the Aero Club of Brazil.

During their stay in the South Bay area, the air cadets from South America and their senior escorts were shown local points of interest by cadets Gwen Hull, Mary Miles, and Anita Wood of Torrance, and by Kathy Partain and Janice Bishop of Lomita.

Chosen as outstanding examples of the aviation country's young people of their country, the visiting cadets included Eduardo Henriques, Luiz Carlos Ladeira, Mario C. Gordinho Filho, Harri R. Kransen, and Benedicto Ribeiro. The senior escorts were Francis W. Benque and Dr. Durbal Ross Borges.

"Simply great" was the reaction to the Southland tour. More appealing to the Brazilian young men, however, was the opportunity to view first hand a typical American teenage party. Held at the home of Cadet Sergeant Gwen Hull, the patio party included other members of the local cadet unit.

In charge of arrangements during their stay were Captain Margaret Cochran, coordinator of women for Long Beach Group 7, and First Lieutenant Mary Pinkney, public information officer for South Bay Squadron 43.
